

ABSTRACT

Erlangga, Moch. Odi Galih. 2020. Stella Grant: A Heroic Representative in Rachael Lippincott's Five Feet Apart 2018. Undergraduate Thesis. English Education Department. Faculty of Teacher Training and Education. University of PGRI Adi Buana Surabaya. Advisor: Ferra Dian Andanty S.S., M.Pd.

Keywords: Heroic, Stella Grant, Novel

The purpose of this study is to describe the main character Stella Grant. how Stella Grant is narrated on the novel and what types of heroic values of Stella Grant on the novel. Researchers chose the novel "Five Feet Apart" by Rachael Lippincott because the novel has meaning about heroism, friendship, and life. In addition, this novel has a light story that is easily understood by readers.

This research is a qualitative research, where the data is processed in the form of quotations, narrations, phrases that contain conversations that connect the value of heroism. And the data source is the novel "Five Feet Apart" and the script.

On this research, the researcher used theory by Mark Gruenwald (2005) that stated heroic values and compared with two theories as support, theory by Frank Farley (2012) and T. M. Calder in Abdullah (2012). Used triangulation as comparison.

The conclusion after analyzing the data based on research questions. The results of this study is Stella Grant's Potrayal is connected to nine heroic values based from the novel, spesifically: Power, conscience, sense of responsibility, wisdom, courage, determination, free will, vulnerability or limitations, culturally determined.