ACKNOWLEDGMENT

This thesis would not have been possibly completed without the encouragement and support of so many people involved, to all of whom I would like to show my deepest gratitude and appreciation. First of all, I am deeply thankful to my supervisor, Dr Irfan Rifai, for his constant help and support, which have totally helped me accomplish this thesis. I acknowledged that, when I obtained uncertainties, difficult circumstances and self-doubt during my writing-up process, his mettlesome support was pivotal in helping me to complete this thesis. I am also very grateful for his critical and intellectual contributions in this thesis.

Secondly, I would like to express my gratitude to University of PGRI Adi Buana Surabaya, particularly its Rector (Dr. M. Subandowo, MS.), the Dean of Faculty of Teaching Training and Education (Dr. Suhari, SH., M.Si.) and the Head of English Language Education Department (Dr. Siyaswati, M.Pd.). Thanks also are extended to the participants in my research who will remain anonymous for reasons pertaining to confidentiality. The cooperativeness and views they shared with me were crucial in helping me to accomplish this thesis.

Thirdly, special thanks to my family who has been giving me endless support and affection in accomplishing this thesis. My mother, especially, who really encourages me to be the best version of me. I also am very grateful to my 3 Dara group; Syifa and Indah, whom have been with me through the ups and downs, thicks and thins, and spending all the best time of my life together within these 4 years. Without their contribution, this thesis would not have been possible accomplished.

Lastly, my deepest gratitude also goes to my thesis group, they are Syifa, Indah, Achyar, Erika, Mira, Fitri, Firda, Vira and Bkti who have been becoming the part of my support systems during my writing-up process. I also really want to say my biggest gratitude to my colleagues and my students whose support and affection I really am thankful for. They have been encouraging me to reach my dreams, particularly in finishing this thesis.
